

Bridgers Creek Hunting Lodge Liability Waiver

All hunters, fishermen and guests must read, understand and agree to this waiver before beginning your agritourism experience, including hunting and/or fishing.

Under North Carolina law, there is no liability for an injury to or death of a participant in an agritourism activity conducted at this agritourism location if such injury or death results from the inherent risks of the agritourism activity. Inherent risks of agritourism activities include, among others, risks of injury inherent to land, equipment, and animals, as well as the potential for you to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to your injury or death. You are assuming the risk of participating in this agritourism activity. (NCGS 99E-32b)

It is the understanding and agreement that if any hunter, or guest should encounter an accident of any type to their body, including injury or death, customer agrees to notify Bridgers Creek Hunting Lodge immediately and will not hold Bridgers Creek Hunting Lodge responsible or held to be liable for any cost, repair, replacement to property or medical expenses for such accidents nor will Bridgers Creek Hunting Lodge, its proprietors, staff, landowners, guides or partners incur any liability claim or be held responsible for the actions of any hunter or guests.

Although Bridgers Creek Hunting Lodge has taken many safety measures to ensure a safe hunting experience and general visit to our property for all customers; all hunters, fishermen, parents or guardians of minors, and guests understand and agree that they will be taking part in all activities, including hunting and/or fishing, at Bridgers Creek Hunting Lodge at their own risk. It is agreed and understood by all parties that Bridgers Creek Hunting Lodge will not be held liable or responsible for any accidents, encounters with dangerous animals, or acts of God including weather that may cause accidents, injury or death.
